

Argentine Tango Workshops with Brook Burdett – January 23th to 25th.

Brooke Burdett is known for her leap across continents six years ago that took her from the Denver area on a "tango calling" to Buenos Aires where she currently resides. Recognized for her elegance on the dance floor and celebrated for her clarity and generosity in the classroom, Brooke teaches and performs tango in Buenos Aires, the U.S. and Canada.

Using an innovative and stimulating method, Brooke teaches so that students can be creative from the start, encouraging exploration and play at all levels. Her style bridges the gap between younger and older generations, and she concentrates on body dynamics essential for both open and closed embrace dancing. Her most influential teachers have been Gustavo Naveira & Olga Besio, Chicho, Graciela Gonzalez, Florencia Taccetti, Mingo & Esther Pugliese and Juan Bruno. She also attributes her knowledge to the immeasurable amount of time dancing in the salons of Buenos Aires and the information transmitted to her directly from her partners on the dance floor.
