

Argentine TANGO with Hsueh-tze Lee

Dancing tango since 1990, Hsueh-tze is nationally recognized as a pre-eminent teacher of close embrace tango. Known for her musicality and innovative dancing, Hsueh-tze coined the phrase "nuevo milonguero" to describe the blending of the traditional with more avant-garde moves in close embrace. She is also a North American pioneer in dancing both the leader's and follower's roles.

Hsueh-tze is regularly invited to teach at national festivals such as those in Denver, Portland and Seattle. In her classes, she focuses on movement dynamics, partner communication, musicality and improvisation. She is appreciated for her enthusiasm and for inspiring her students to become dynamic social dancers. She hosts and DJs Blue Milonga, a popular monthly milonga in Boston (see her web site www.bluetango.org).
