

Argentine TANGO with

Hsueh-tze Lee

Known for her musicality and innovative approach, Hsueh-tze has been one of North America's pioneers in Argentine Tango since 1990. She draws inspiration from her extensive experience dancing with milongueros of Buenos Aires over 8 extended trips. Her dance blends the richness of tango with exploratory possibilities.

Equally adept in both leading and following with 16 years of experience dancing both roles, Hsueh-tze is sought for her skills and insights. She has taught in Buenos Aires, Singapore, Mexico, Canada, and throughout the US, including at major festivals in Denver, Portland and Seattle. In her classes, Hsueh-tze integrates her knowledge of dance, physiology and biomechanics to focus on movement quality, partner communication, musicality and improvisation. She imparts a dynamic and distinctive perspective to her students. Hsueh-tze hosts and DJs Blue Milonga, the popular second Saturday milonga in Boston.

Hsueh-tze holds a doctorate in physiology from Harvard University, and won a teaching award as a Harvard Teaching Fellow.

Hsueh-tze is offering a limited number of private lessons Friday through Monday. For additional information, contact Barbara at (801) 718-4736.
