

Argentine TANGO

in Salt Lake City

with Korey Ireland and Mitra Martin

Korey is immersed in tango dance and music. A professional composer, turned tango enthusiast, Korey is passionate about sharing ideas and experience that enrich Argentine Tango as a social dance and music form. Since 2001, Korey has traveled as a dancer, teacher, performer and musician. This work has brought him to the world's tango capitals as well as budding new communities around the globe. Enthusiasm for sharing, teaching and exploring tango inform and inspire his classes.

Mitra discovered Tango at La Viruta in Buenos Aires in 1998 and subsequently pursued tango passionately in NYC and other major cities around the world. Mitra's understanding of tango spans roles, orchestras and dance styles. A highly versatile dancer, Mitra has performed with some of the finest and most subtle Tango dancers from all parts of the world. As a teacher she is creative, exciting and sensitive. Her skill draws from a wealth of body-awareness work and her own deeply personal experience of Tango.
